Forward Looking Statements

This presentation contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including information regarding our guidance for future periods. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current expectations and beliefs, as well as a number of assumptions concerning future events, many of which are outside of our control. These statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statement. These risks and uncertainties include but are not limited to: the sensitivity of our business to the number of flight hours that our customers' planes spend aloft and our customers' profitability, both of which are affected by general economic conditions; geopolitical or worldwide events; cyber-security threats and natural disasters; our reliance on certain customers; the U.S. defense budget and risks associated with being a government supplier; failure to maintain government or industry approvals; failure to complete or successfully integrate acquisitions; our substantial indebtedness; potential environmental liabilities; increases in raw material costs that cannot be recovered in product pricing; risks associated with our international sales and operations; and other factors. Further information regarding the important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from projected results can be found in TransDigm Group's Annual Report on Form 10-K and other reports that TransDigm Group or its subsidiaries have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements. TransDigm Group Incorporated assumes no obligation to, and expressly disclaims any obligation to, update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Special Notice Regarding Pro Forma and Non-GAAP Information

This presentation sets forth certain pro forma financial information. This pro forma financial information gives effect to certain recently completed acquisitions. Such pro forma information is based on certain assumptions and adjustments and does not purport to present TransDigm's actual results of operations or financial condition had the transactions reflected in such pro forma financial information occurred at the beginning of the relevant period, in the case of income statement information, or at the end of such period, in the case of balance sheet information, nor is it necessarily indicative of the results of operations that may be achieved in the future.

This presentation also sets forth certain non-GAAP financial measures. A presentation of the most directly comparable GAAP measures and a reconciliation to such measures are set forth in the appendix.

[1] During the fourth quarter of 2017, the Company committed to disposing of Schroth in connection with the settlement of a Department of Justice investigation into the competitive effects of the acquisition. Therefore, Schroth was classified as a held-for-sale and as discontinued operations beginning September 30, 2017 for all periods presented. The Company acquired Schroth in February 2017. On January 26, 2018, the Company completed the sale of Schroth in a management buyout to a private equity fund and certain members of Schroth management for approximately $61.4 million in cash, which includes a working capital adjustment of $0.3 million that was settled in July 2018.

[2] Represents accounting adjustments to inventory, associated with acquisitions of businesses and product lines that were charged to cost of sales when the inventory was sold: costs incurred to integrate acquired businesses and product lines into TD Group's operations, facility relocation costs and other acquisition-related costs; transaction-related costs comprising deal fees; legal, financial and tax due diligence expenses; and valuation costs that are required to be expensed as incurred.

[3] Represents the compensation expense recognized by TD Group under our stock incentive plans.

[4] Represents cost expensed related to debt financing activities, including new issuances, extinguishments, refinancings and amendments to existing agreements.

[5] Primarily represents foreign currency transaction gain or loss, payroll withholding taxes related to dividend equivalent payments and gain or loss on sale of fixed assets. Prior to the fourth quarter of fiscal 2017, foregin currency transaction gain or loss other than related to intercompany loans was not included in the adjustements to EBITDA, as the foreign currency transaction gain or loss was immaterial during those periods. Therefore, the prior periods presented herein were adjusted to conform to the current year presentation.

[6] The EBITDA As Defined margin represents the amount of EBITDA As Defined as a percentage of sales.
